The revision now made has regard to the following points —

A City Mul Councils —

(1) approval of Govt to candidature has been done away with

(2) Election is subject to the approval of Govt

(3) Provision has been made for notice of candidature as well as for notice of election (vide rules II & IV)

(4) Provision has been made for Successive ballots, which is necessary in order to secure absolute majority of votes

(5) Provision has been made for adjourned election, if the election once held is not approved for any reason whatever

(6) Rule X regarding inquiry into objections has been drafted alternatively as directed

(7) The rules are made applicable for filling up vacancies —

B Other Mul Councils —

Remarks (3) (5) & (7) noted above

(2) The above remarks apply to the Town Mul Councils also. Except There is no need for successive ballots in their case As there seems to be a policy against open election, provision has been made for ballot Election Rule X has not been drafted in the alternative as suggested

When the Government shall have directed that the President of the Vice-President or both of City Municipal Council shall be elected, the election shall be subject to the following rules:-

(i) The election shall take place at the first meeting of the newly constituted Municipal Council or at a special meeting held on a day not later than one month from the date of the Government order if the direction was given during the term of office of the existing Council, as the case may be.

(ii) The election shall not be held unless at least three-fourths of the total number of -- Councillors are present at the meeting.

(iii) Any Councillor who desires or is willing to be elected should notify the same to the Secretary to Government in the Revenue Department ten days before the day fixed for election.

It is hereby notified that no candidate will be declared declared eligible to stand for election unless his application is supported in writing by two Municipal Councillors.

(iv) The names of the candidates ~~approved by government~~ shall be notified at the Municipal Office at least ~~three days~~ 10 days before the day fixed for holding the election.

(v) Voting shall be by ballot and the election shall be decided by a majority of votes of the Councillors present at the meeting, provided that no candidate shall be declared elected unless he secures at least two-thirds of the total number of votes of the Councillors present at the meeting and his election is subsequently confirmed by Government.

(vi) The election shall be conducted in the following manner.

(a) Every Councillor wishing to vote shall, at the meeting, write on a slip of paper the name of the candidate he wishes to be elected to the office of President or Vice-President and place the same in a box so constructed that papers may be placed therein but not extracted without the box being opened. The presiding authority shall then open the box and count the votes in the presence of the Council. The candidate having the largest number of votes, or, if only one candidate has been nominated, such candidate shall be considered to have been elected to the offic subject to the condition laid down in rule (v) above.

(b) If no candidate has secured the absolute majority of votes required by rule (v) the ballot shall be repeated.

(c) At each successive ballot, the candidate who obtained the fewest votes at the presiding ballot shall be eliminated and he shall then be eligible to vote. If two or more candidates lowest on the list have obtained equal ~~members~~ numbers of votes a separate ballot shall be taken in order to decide which of them should be eliminated. The elimination ~~of~~ shall, if no candidate secures an absolute majority of votes, be made until two candidates only ~~are~~ are left and if even the last ballot fails to produce the required majority of votes in favour of any one candidate, the meeting shall be closed.

(d) No candidate nominated for the office shall take part in the ballot, but a candidate may withdraw his ~~candidature~~ at any stage with or without the consent of his nominators, after which he shall be competent to take part in the ballot.
